Women's Council Welcomes New Members

(GLENDALE, CA – February 17, 2009) – The Women's Council of the Verdugo Hills Hospital Foundation recently held a new member's luncheon at New Moon restaurant in Montrose to welcome four new members who joined the group of dedicated women. The new members were: CeCe Hall, Irene Mueller, Joy Wang and Christina Campbell.

The attendees at the luncheon were: Eileen Akers; Kate Kaneko; CeCe Hall; Marie Hansen; Sharon Harker; Pauline Hendricks; Betty Hurn; Ruth McNevin; Randy Medina; Irene Mueller; Mary Reichley; Teri Rice; Chris Rothrock; Joy Wang and Jean Woody.

Last year, the Women's Council donated $140,000 toward the purchase of telemetry and pediatric equipment as well as a hospice sleep chair for the hospital's Emergency Department, which continues to be an approved provider of emergency treatment for pediatric patients.

If you are interested in joining this fun, dynamic group, please call the Women's Council office at 818.952.2228.

About the Hospital:

Verdugo Hills Hospital is a 158-bed nonprofit primary care facility nestled in the foothills between Glendale and La Cañada Flintridge. Hospital features include emergency services, comprehensive inpatient and outpatient diagnostic and treatment facilities, and a family birthing center. It is the only independent, free-standing hospital in the greater Foothills community and was voted "Foothills' Best Hospital" for 2008 by readers of the Glendale News-Press for the fifth consecutive year. For more information, please visit www.vhhospital.org. For more information about funding initiatives or to support the hospital, please call the Foundation at 818.952.2226.
